The 3x5 Information cards document three main types of information.

1. The retirement status, job history and location of employment of Southern Pacific employees.
2. The retirement status, job history and location of employment and the types of passes that the employee received upon retirement from Southern Pacific.
3. The types of passes that the employee's spouse and/or children received upon retirement of the Southern Pacific employee.

Correspondence

These items are typically carbon-copy letters from Southern Pacific acknowledging the employee's request for the termination of employment with Southern Pacific. Correspondence also pertains to an employee's job changes as well as notices about various benefits.

The bulk of these letters are from the 1960's.

These papers would have been completed by a retired employee for application of the employee annuity under the Railroad Retirement Act. After the retired employee's death, these papers would be sent to Southern Pacific as proof of their death and thus ending their retirement benefit. Information includes occupation, date and place of birth, the beneficiary, and the date of death and social security numbers.

While the applications state there is a certified copy of death certificate attached, these are not present in the packets at CSRM.
